This is the last part of my diaries seriously. . . i could not write an autobiography as the memories are too much to bear so i gave the minimum and threw out the rest where it belongs. Im smiting the past with exploring arts like i use to starting with literary arts then i am moving my way across the canvass to do performing arts as well as visual. Now, math and science books are a challenge for me and not in a hard way but to see if i can truly work all by myself. Thats right I said it all by myself. Lots of laugh. . . in the last part of my diary explains how i came up with a method to build my own business and economy up from scratch but not too much in detail. My design was more of tribalism, and thought pattern more of geometry. I have my own axioms and perception plus truly life has this thing about thinking on your own but then again life is not just people telling you...
