This pdf is indeed gripping and interesting. It is definitely simplistic but shocks within the 50 percent of your book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

The Board of Education should be an eminent group selected, or elected by the people, to represent them in the control of the function of public education. The Board should be a deliberative, not an executive body directly; It should reflect truly all the various phases of opinion and desire found in the people which it represents: it should, by investigation and consideration and discussion, weigh the various proposals in view of the necessities and the best public policy and so determine what are the wise and feasible lines of progress; it should, through the advice of experts, study the possible channels and means and methods by which the determined aims shall be worked out and decide on the lines of action; it should leave to its officials, who must be experts in their respective...
