RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 46 pages. OCLC Number: 53298498 Excerpt: . . . financing obligations according to generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). GAAP does not require the lease-leaseback arrangements to be characterized as debt on the external financial statements, but it does require that they be reported as liabilities, and TVA classifies them as such in its financial statements. For budgetary reporting purposes, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has concluded that the lease-leaseback arrangements should be treated as debt, and they have been classified as such in the federal budget just as if they had been bond issues. For purposes of compliance with TVAs debt cap, current law does not clearly and unambiguously address whether the amount of the lease-leaseback arrangements should be counted against the debt cap; therefore, TVAs position that they should not be counted against the debt cap is not unreasonable. While the lease-leaseback arrangements are not considered debt for purposes of financial reporting and debt cap compliance, they have substantially the same economic impact on TVAs financial condition and future competitiveness as traditional debt financing. Therefore, we are including a matter for...
